CHURCH TODAY —

Next weekend (Feb. 4-5), we will be taking up a special collection for our diocesan newspaper — the Church Today. Every month, this 24-age newspaper is mailed FREE to every Catholic household in the diocese. All donations to this special collection go directly to the Church today to help defray the cost of printing and mailing. If you, or someone you know, would like to receive the Church Today FREE each month, call 318-445-6424, ext. 255 to request it.

DOMESTIC CHURCH RETREAT —

Provides long-term support and formation for sacramentally married couples who want to grow in holiness together as a couple. What began in Poland over forty years ago with the guidance and support of St. John Paul II is now available for English speaking couples here in the U.S. Although we know that true holiness is supposedly possible within the midst of the daily demands of marriage and parenthood, it can be very difficult to know how to access it and take advantage of the fact that marriage is a sacrament. Domestic Church gives couples and families real, concrete help for tapping into what God has in store for us in the blessed vocation of marriage. Domestic Church will hold a retreat for interested couples in the Diocese of Alexandria at Camp Hardtner in Pollock the weekend of Feb. 23-26. For more details and to register for the retreat, check out domesticchurchfamilies.com.
