ST. JULIANA CHURCH COMMUNITY –

Offers its heartfelt sympathy and consolation to the bereaved family of MR. ELWOOD DIXON and offers its prayers for the departed soul. May he rest in peace!

What do you do when you hear the voice of God calling you to walk away from sin?

Do you simply hear it? Or you hear and then act and live your life once again worthy in the eyes of God. Many of us might be dismissive of this call of God to repentance, we might simply brush it aside and dismiss it as nothing or insignificant to our lives in this world.

But God did not only create us for this world alone there is something higher that exist beyond this world. There is something that follows after our existence in this world is over and this is none other than heaven or hell.

In our gospel for this Sunday there is this son who was asked by his father to work in his vineyard (Matthew 21:28). The son initially said that he will not go to his father's vineyard but upon pondering about the order of his father. The son had a change of heart and went to the vineyard to work there (Matthew 21:29).

God in our readings and our gospel for this Sunday is inviting us to conversion. We who are all sinners are being encouraged by God to have a change of heart so that we could walk away from our sinfulness.

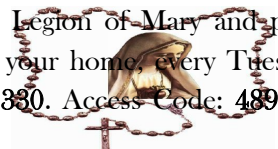

Let us not worry if for so many times we said no to His offer of conversion. For He will not count the many times that we refused Him what is important for the Lord is the here and now and our yes to Him now.

Are we all not yet tired of committing sin? Are we not tired yet of a noisy life, life without peace and serenity? The reality is sin has not brought us anything good except more problems and disturbance in our lives.

CANCER AWARENESS MONTH— The Altar Society will issue pink ribbons to all parishioners next Sunday, Oct. 8th in celebration of National Cancer Awareness month. A Mass will be celebrated on October 15, 2017 for all cancer survivors.
