REFLECTIONS — SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 26, 2017

A dictatorial husband would always tell his wife and children that he is the king of their house. Being so, they are obliged to follow what he tells them to do. Therefore, whatever he tells his family they followed without question.

Do we have the kingship of Christ in our hearts right now? If our answer is yes, it is therefore incumbent upon us not to have a dictatorial mindset and attitude. This is for the reason that Jesus Christ was never a dictator. Jesus never exercised His authority with iron fist, He exercised His authority and power with love, gentleness and humility.

Christ kingship is already here and now. It resides in our hearts and minds if we are like those placed on the right side of the king. This happens when we feed those who are hungry and thirsty when we help a stranger at our doorstep.

When we care for the sick, when we visit those in prison. When we forgive those who have wronged us no matter how deep the wound that they have inflicted upon us. When we do all of these we make Jesus the king of our lives and His kingdom is already within us.

Is Jesus the King of your life?
